

CAST MEMBERS FOR THE UPCOMING performance of Broadway Musical Spectacular, "BRIGADOON" during a rehearsal with their choreographer Mrs. Fred Drost. "Brigadoon" opens at the High School Auditorium on May 19 and will be presented also on May 20, 21 and 22. Besides the 20 dancers, there is a chorus of 50 voices. Some of the hit tunes from the show are "What a Day This has been", "The Heather on the Hill", "There But for You Go I" and "From This Day On." The cast consists of Grand Blanc High School students. Tickets or information about Brigadoon may be obtained by writing to "Brigadoon", Grand Blanc High School.

Brigadoon Is Coming

May 19-22, the Grand Blanc High school music department will present the Broadway Musical "Brigadoon". The story revolves around two young New Yorkers who are hunting in the Scottish Highlands and inadvertently stumble on Brigadoon, an 18th Century Scottish village which comes into being for only one day in each century. The two New Yorkers soon find themselves involved in the many exciting events which take place in the one day existence of this beautiful Scottish village.

Some of the hit tunes from the show include "Almost Like Being in Love", "Down on MacConnachy Square", "The Heather on the Hill", "The Love of My Life", "Come to me, Bend to me", "There But for you go I".

The singing leads are sung by the following Grand Blanc High school students, Lana Goodchild, Tom Tirrell, Bruce Farrell and Cris Spaulding. Other important speaking parts are done by Terry Maxey, Bob Peterson, Larry Earl, Mike Dandaneau, John Pirrett, Judy
