

CLASS NIGHT

June 3, 1965

"We Have Crossed The Streams of Fantasy

and The Sea of Reality Flows Before Us."

Class Colors: Burgandy and Navy Blue

Class Flower: White Rose

PROPHECY

The Senior Class reunion was held this year in the Chrystal Ballroom of the Hotel Astoria here in New York City. There was an exceptionally large turnout with a few unexpected surprises. Outside of the former students in the attendance were a few former teachers, Mr. J. W. Esson, Mr. J. Rule, Mr. J. Edwards, and Mrs. G. Tremewan. Mr. Esson quit teaching and now is in seclusion writing poetry. His better known are Jabberwordy, How Do I Hate Thee, and many more. Mr. Rule is now playing pro-golf but still using Trig on his iron shots. Plus many more noted celebrities. This has been one of the gala nights of the social calendar.

1. Jackie Allen--as a man's clothes designer
2. Nancy Allen--attending a Senior Parent night (as a parent)
3. Sue Allen--singing fifth voice in a Beauty Shop quartet
4. Ken Almi--a member of the U.S. Olympic drinking team
5. Dave Anderson--playing basketball for the Detroit Pistons as center
6. Faye Anderson--a member of the Hi-Fly Sky-Diving Club
7. Leroy Anderson--singing fifth voice in a Barber Shop quartet
8. Mike Bacon--as a hair dresser in a beauty salon
9. Sandy Bair--graduating from Beauty School
10. Ed Barnes--a confirmed bachelor teaching Home Economics
11. Laura Barnes--interviewing for a dancing job on Shindig
12. Sue Barrell--as an automobile designer for General Motors
13. Ken Baxter--as Mr. Universe
14. Berta Bechtel--as a lady wrestler at the I. M. A.
15. Karen Beckley--as a pilot for Zero-Space Research flying rockets to the moon and back
16. Bill Perry--designing one-piece bathing suits for women with his own models
17. Carol Bickersteth--as skate board champion
18. Jim Dignall--an ace pilot fly missions over South Vietnam
19. Gloria Ballings--as the director of the board of hair colors
20. Dallas Bingley--designing skate boards
21. Becky Birmingham--as a lawyer in the firm of Eaton & Birmingham
22. Richard Black--designing automobile bumpers that won't break legs
23. Gloria Bleskanski--still playing 1st chair for Mr. Ryan

24. Pat Bolerjack--making records for Columbia Record Club
25. Lucy Borg--graduating from a convent
26. Terry Bradford--singing the lead voice in a Mr. Clean commercial
27. Francis Brasseur--has won the two mile walking race between Russia and the U.S.
28. Dick Bohms--President of the United States
29. Dan Brewer--a sailor with a girl in every port
30. Ken Brewer--swimming instructor for Brewers Incorporated
31. Linda Bruner--chief saleswoman of Gillett Razor-blades for removal of friend's beard
32. Ron Buchko--test pilot for Small Airplanes Limited
33. Brenda Buck--editor of William Castle's book Children's Bedtime Stories
34. Ray Buck--student teacher in a Senior Civics Class 3rd. hour
35. Linda Burns--the Betty Crocker of 1980
36. Dianne Burt--year's best Moter-in-Law
37. Bob Carlson--Vice-President of Carlson Bank
38. Paul Carroll-skate board champion of 1980
39. Carol Cavanagh--Book binder for Random House Publishers
40. Marilyn Caves--basketball coach at Harvard
41. John Chase--Special Economics Assistant to the President
42. Janice Clark--Manager, owner, chief cook and bottle washer of Kertesz Nursery School
43. Dan Class--referee of the Clay vs. Liston fiasco of 1980
44. Linda Clinton--Assistant in a Joy nursery
45. Sharon Cocks--Dress designer for Petite Fashions
46. Linda Cochran--Ambassador to the pygmies of Africa
47. Dennis Conway--American's answer to Don Juan
48. Pat Coon--President of Lewis, Knoph, and Kirk
49. Landa Cope--Photographer on assignment for National Geographic in the Amazon
50. Gary Craig--frosting taster in the Betty Crocker Kitchen
51. Roberta Cranston--An English major, French minor, teaching in a Spanish speaking country
52. Mike Craton--Professor of English Literature at Oxford University
53. Leonore Cress--Secretary for Mad Magazine
54. Charles Cross--manager and owner of Cross Market
55. Bob Edwards--Police Chief in Grand Blanc
56. David Ehlers--managing the midget wrestling team
57. Jan Ellinger--autographing basketballs
58. La Vonne Dinant--Doctor of mathematics at Southwestern Utah
State teachers College of Beauty

59. Ron Eaton--married & ten children (two sets of quintuplets all girls)
60. Don Eagleson--a teenage idol.
61. Larry Earl--managing Tavern On the Green--coat room
62. Diane Dunsmore--Mr. & Mrs. Dennis Conway, 1261 Brookway, Alaska
63. Sharon Dunkel--Private secretary to Mr. Donith.
64. Bill Donahue--managing "Little Bill" poker house
65. Mike Dandaneau--still continue Jack & Jill romance with Sue Barrel
66. Mary Ann Douglas--married, with a dozen kids
67. Jan Dover--working on former President Johnson ranch as wrangler (one of the boys)
68. Tom DuLude--cleaning Citizen's Bank.
69. Judy Cuvellier--singing "Stan Musial" autographs on NFL footballs
70. Diane Doyle--chief assistant to Oleg Cassini
71. Susan Cushman--four time Olympic Gold Medal winner for 1984 (shot put, discus, mile relay, pole vault)
72. Karen Cruickshank--private secretary to Edsel Ford
73. Les Draws--still working on his 1952 Chevy
74. Bob Czubay--telling Polok jokes at the Sands in Las Vegas
75. Rod Drieger--still trying to locate the trouble with his Austin Healy
76. Doug Dunlap--soda pop tester
77. Gary Debolt--industrial wizz over of Debolt enterprises maker of that famous 2 year old scotch "Old Gramma"
78. Terry Deane--making license plates
79. Jo Ann Duke-- 1st woman announcer for the Detroit Tigers
80. Mike Dunk--manufacturer of Ford transmissions
81. Elizabeth Elliot--a free-lance writer for True Confessions magazine.
82. Jack Ellis--Top ranch-hand at the L.B.J. ranch.
83. Jim Estep--If you've got a rat in your rug-let Jim Estep give it a tug. Beautitton.
84. Royal Fader--He'll own a rooster farm--with a chick on every arm.
85. Gail Fenton--Manufacturing sail-boats for Lake Fenton--(she has her own gale.)
86. Charles Fisher--went fishing--and caught one.
87. Paulette Ford--She'll be paddling down the Gitchiegoonie with her Algonquin Grandmother.
88. Bill Fowler--He'll be stensiling murals on outside privys.
89. Jackie Francis--singing contralto at the "Net".

90. Bob Francisco--Head mechanic for Craig Breedlove.
91. Pam Gatrell--She'll still be trying to sell the idea of her deck shoes.
92. Len Gawron--The greens at Warwick will be flooded by them-- Good luck Len.
93. Berniga Gear--Shifty as ever.
94. Nancy Gieger--She'll be a little gieger counter.
95. Roy Gillespie--National Grand Champion marble thrower.
96. Larry Gillies--Test driver for Willis Motor Company.
97. Erwin Glann--Grandfather.
98. Linda Goodman--Another Wilma Rudolph.
99. Marie Goodman--Ballet dancer.
100. Nancy Goodrich--Head waitress at The Brown Derby.
101. Suzanne Goss--Studing the habits of the wild American teenius ageris for National Geographic.
102. Sue Grambush--Fan dancer at the Hungri-1 in San Francisco.
103. Karen Grammatico--Playing 7th clarinet for the Peanuts Kazoo Band.
104. Gary Graves--Driving a loaded Strohs beer truck.
105. Kathy Gray--Head instructor at Madame J. Poinby Tillbottom's School of Art.
106. Sue Griggs--Commentator for a women's gab-session-"Girl Talk".
107. Don Grovesteen--The best 3rd. baser in the major baseball league.
108. John Grimes--A lion tamer in a circus.
109. Willard Hall--A White Hunter in Africa.
110. Jackie Halstead--The head bunny girl at the Playboy Club in Detroit.
111. Terry Hanmala-A professional cow chaser.
112. Lesley Harper--Teaching advanced mathematics at Yale.
113. Kay Harris--A first class mechanic.
114. Willowjeana Havener--A campaign speaker.
115. Richard Hayes--A state senator.
116. Dawn Heiderer--Taking Wilma Rudolph's place.
117. Lawrence Hendrick--A first class farmer.
118. Jim Heos--peddling beer.
119. Joy Herman--The cat in "Bell, Book, and Candle."
120. Pam Hickox--has a couple dozen children.
121. Myrna Holstine--is punching keys all day.
122. Karen Horn--is a dress designer for Christian d' Or.

123. Betty Houser--happily married with a dozen children.
124. Sharon Hovey--an efficient dentist with a secretarial background.
125. Wayne Howe--in the Philharmonie Symphony Orchestra.
126. Nicky Hume--won the Indianapolis 500.
127. Liebeth Hunter--A friendly postman.
128. David Hyde--An English teacher.
129. Judy Ismael--Still working in K-Mart.
130. Debbie Jackson--the President of the Salvation Army.
131. Francine Jakubik--A second Madame Curie.
132. Anita Jazrog--The bearded fat lady in a circus.
133. James Jenson--A pin-boy.
134. James Jewett--Working head spotlight at the Metropolitan Opera.
135. Linda Johnson--the youngest Miss Universe.
136. Diane Jones--washing dishes in the back of Harry Swartz Hotdog Palace.
137. Sally Kellen--driving a 1947 Rambler.
138. Jim Kertez--camping near Las Vegas.
139. Harry Kindelsperger--doing Gillette shaving cream commercials.
140. Carley King--an engineer in charge of construction of Beer Cans at Carlings Brewery.
141. Roger Kirkemier--giving lectures at ladies garden club meetings.
142. Bev Kiser--Field Manager for the Alcoa Aluminum Co.
143. Diane Kitchen--designing bathrooms.
144. Jack Klosterman--a game warden in Alaska.
145. Linda Koepfgen--sitting with Karl at his Vic Tanny
146. Sharon Kohn--owner of factory called Ice Cream by Kohn.
147. Karl Kontyko--Vic Tanny Gym at Muscle Beach.
148. Jack Kouchy--will go in business with his mother, Kochy and Son.
149. Elec Kovacs--head obstetrition at the hospital in Sing Sing.
150. Kris Kropelnitski--carhop at Klimaszewski's Kilbasa Hut.
151. Nancy Krutka--raising Coons.
152. Diane La Bean--still in such a hurry that she trips into cars.
153. Janis LaFave--driving a truck for her dad.
154. Janet Lee--playing 4th sax for the salvation army.
155. Dave Laney--painting lines on roads for the highway commission.
156. Dennis Leonhart--works in a garage fixing cars.
157. Chris LePard--President of the National Chain of Falk Pharmacies.
158. Diane Levenson--a switchboard operator at the U. N.

159. Bob Lieber--head man of Central Michigan's Booster Club.
160. Billie Lineberry--still carries her coffee can when traveling any distance.
161. Linda Liskey--an interpreter for the U. N. forces in South America.
162. Gayle Little--manager of a "don't touch" football team at Ferris.
163. Laurel Luciani--Fat bearded lady in a circus.
164. Jackie Luckstead--flying her own private one passenger plane from Alma to Chicago looking for a long lost friend.
165. Pamela Maggard--owner of the coveted Black Belt in Judo.
166. Ronald Maier--selling his paintings in Needle Park, New York.
167. Nancy Marlow--owner of a manicure factory.
168. Herb Marwe--midget stockcar racer.
169. Barb Martin--specializes in the field of hair straightening in South Africa.
170. James Mascio--reporter for Esquire.
171. Susan Maul--knitting nose-warmers in Iceland.
172. Terry Maxey--working for Lady Clairol. Only his hairdresser knows for sure.
173. Ken May--Chronic magazine eyeball scratcher-outer.
174. Barb McKay--suffering from a U. S. S. wasp sting. Anyone got a rowboat?
175. Terry McClelland--custodian at Vic Tanney's.
176. John McCombs--works in a mirror factory in Lansing.
177. John McDaniel--King of the road.
178. Susie McNeal--treating patients with Doctor Zorba.
179. Greg McVannel--the leading politician of the U. S.
180. Jim Meier--Demonstrator of Johnson's Baby Powder.
181. Carolyn Menges--knife and fork in hand, Carolyn is still counting--1, 2, 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ .
182. Robert Menges--President of Ladies Perfume Company.
183. Tresa Miller--head mechanic at the Indianapolis 500 Speedway.
184. Ken Mills--a man will be seen jumping up and down on the putting green after his first hole-in-one; he will be known as Prof. Kenneth Mills, ardent authority on Shakespearean literature.
185. Dan Mitchell--president of the M. M. M. A. Mitchell's Manurer Manufactures of America.
186. Pat Moen--leading ticket taker at a well known Michigan theater.
187. Barrie Moody--wrestles alegators in Florida's Everglades.
188. Bill Love--first trombone player in the New York Philharmonic Orchestra.
189. Bonita Moomsey--in 1985 wrangler for J & J Ranch.
190. Jill Murphy--artist at Greenwich Villiage.
191. Sandy Nichols--head popcorn popper for Barnum and Bailey.
192. Ed Olson--manager of Olson's Wholesale Chemical Distributors.

193. John Olson--Pro-green mowers for P. O. A.
194. Pam Patton--Playing dual roles in the Polident - Lady Clarrol commercial.
195. Linda Patzwell--First woman down Mount Everest on a skateboard.
196. Gene Pulliam--Chief draftsman for Mad Charlie's Hock and Swap Shop.
197. Sandy Puyear--Giving pixies at Andrea's of Fifth Avenue.
198. Cathy Quill--Making the recordings for America's No. 1 doll, Chatty Cathy dolls.
199. Vicki Rayner--Owner of Rayner Pharmaceutical Company making Myrtle's Green Pep Pills.
200. Janette Reed--Singing the theme song with The Dutch Master's Sextet.
201. Jim Reed--Head timekeeper at Chevy Plant.
202. Sharon Rowbotham--Still writing letters.
203. Phil Richardson--Professional pall-bearer for Scottish funerals.
204. Bob Peterson--Head checker at Hamady's Plaza Store.
205. Sig Peterson--Author of "How to Hold a Successful Friday Night Open House."
206. Dan Phelps--Willie Masconi's official table brusher.
207. Craig Phillips--Yul Brenner's Hollywood stand-in.
208. Don Pickler--Drummer in Peanut's Kazoo band.
209. Chris Pierce--Making a home on the moon.
210. Vicki Pleasant--Black market vendor of tranquilizers to Mr. Rules math students.
211. Jeannie Pobocik--Editing the famous "Bunny Book" for her second graders.
212. Marge Pobocik--Selling pep pills at Luella's.
213. Sandy Pray--Fixit-all-purpose garage for all flatter-brained female drivers.
214. Linda Ports--Culminates the longest courtship on record with her imminent marriage to B. P.
215. Linda Rau--Still riding horses at the J & J Ranch.
216. Peggy Plomondon--Thrilling audiences by jumping from space ships.
217. Jim Neuberger--In charge of United Nations "Bundle for Transylvania" Fund.
218. Richard Mooney--Minnesota Mooney competing for world pocket billiards championship.
219. John Moore--Traveling Toni Salesman.
220. Peg Myers--Chairman of the ladies chapter of the National Farmers Organization.
221. Larry Moore--Shooting the pier at Huntington Beach.
222. Marvin Mosley--Maidenform model.
223. Phillip Richardson--Playing bass with Count Bassie.
224. Janet Myrant--Has broken the record for sleeping the most hours in a row.

225. Darrel Nelson--Lung Cancer Surgeon
226. Judy Frock--Star of "Peyton Place,"
227. Colette Schulte--the last person in the U.S. to turn in her 1985 income tax and be in jail for it.
228. Al Selesky--a salesman at the Grand Blase Co-Operative Grain Elevator.
229. Dave Schofield--the photographer for Sports Afield who photographs the inside of a whale the hard way.
230. Kathy Shaker--owns the largest chain of drugstores in America to give green stamps.
231. Ruth Slaughter--an army nurse in the Viet Nam area, we'll still be fighting.
232. Linda Sowle--a french maid in the German Embassy in Tibet.
233. Jim Rogers--a pro car driver and finish second in every race he enters.
234. Herb Rinnert--an automobile mechanic specializing in dented fenders.
235. Judy Rogers--personnell manager for a leading psychiatric clinic.
236. Jeana Rossie--bear back rider in B&B circus.
237. Sandra Rogers--librarian for the U. S. Embassy in Outer Mongolia.
238. Nancy Roth--Nobel Peace Price winner for her work in study hall in 1965.
239. Ken Sowden--the best dressed man in Timbuctu for the 20th straight year.
240. Sharon Steiner--President of Stoner Stine Company of Hambury Germany.
241. Gloria Sullivan--inherited a vast estate from her cousin Ed.
242. Charlie Shelburn--the world's worst comedy writer on unemployment for 20 years.
243. Cheryl Robinson--President of a company turning out madras bermudas.
244. Linda Swarbrick--Another Genovefa.
245. Mike Sirna--heavyweight champ of the world.
246. Sue Roth--dirt poor because some fink judge gave her no allamony for her divorce.
247. Diane Schmitt--strict tea-tollder.
248. Cheryl St. John--President of the Carlson Bank.
249. Kathy Sharp--the only secretary in the world who never paid for anything.
250. Greg Smith--the oldest man to have pitched a no-hit double header and lost both games.
251. Roy Slieff--the fastest, most uneducated engineer in history.
252. Van Schliep--the first man to have hit 70 home runs and tripped over first base every time.

253. Elizabeth Taylor--deceased--mobbed by half crazy autograph hunters at her wedding.
254. Merikay Roth--1st clarinet in the Hamburg Philharmonic and loose her reed before a solo.
255. Bob Rozof--building floats for the tournament of Roses and will have come in last for 20 straight years setting a new worlds record.
256. Bruce Summerer--the shortest driver on the P. G. A. tour.
257. Cris Spaulding--the best saleswoman the Opal Kadet Company had in 20 years.
258. Richard Smith--the worlds first (and last) 5'9" pro basketball center with the Boston Celtrics.
259. Paul Rockafellow--the worlds oldest and best soda jerk.
260. Mary Jo Rousseau--the fashion designer who came up with 10" high heeled shoes.
261. Nancy Swift--President of the Ladies League to stamp out dandelions.
262. Pam Staton--a millionaire, having hit oil while drilling a patients teeth.
263. Linda Stair--the only person in history to aut rebound Bill Russell for 80 straight NBA games.
264. Diane Stilson--singer for the Easy Stongle Mets.
265. Joyce Stokes--nurse attached to the French Foreign Legion.
266. Charli Snyder--President of the American Union of Projectionist.
267. Suellen Rupp--the only 20-year veteran of the Peace Corps.
268. Chuck Roberts--managing editor of the Flint Journal and the 1st man in history to roll 17 games under 100 on the Pro Bowlers Tour.
269. Rod Teel--head-stylist at Crawford & Zimmerman.
270. Bill Thiel--head cashier at Hamady Brothers.
271. Linda Thibault--census taker for Mr. Creasy.
272. Sue Thilar--unicycle racer
273. Woody Todd--Disc Jockey for WKMF
274. Richard Tomkinson--Manager for the Vogue.
275. Linda Tune--married with four children.
276. Jay Turner--lead character on the "Rifleman".
277. Steve Uholski--drug issuer at Cook's drug store.
278. Ron Vander May--electrical engineer in the Amazon.
279. Pat VanLoon--Private Secretary for the Central Intelligence Agency.
280. Vicki Vorce--owner and proprietitor of a gambling casino.
281. Janice Waggoner--teaching Sunday School in Siberia.
282. Ron Walker--historian for Collier's Encylopedia.
283. Tom Walker--chief advertiser for Winston commercials.
284. Cassie Ward--head of State Liquor Board.

285. Richard Ward--pole vaulting for U. S. in Olympics
286. Shirley Warren--model for Sax Fifth Avenue
287. John Washburn--digging ditches
288. Dave Wedding--head writer for "Peyton Place"
289. Laura Weirauch--crocodile wrestler.
290. Carolyn Welch--replace Mary in Peter, Paul, and Carol.
291. Brian Welder--"The Great White Hunter" in Africa.
292. Kirk Wells--clarinet teacher.
293. Andy Wentz--another "Leaping Larry Shain".
294. Pat Wiggins--Politician for Republican Party.
295. Delores Williams--instructor at "Vic Tanny".
296. Linda Williams--only live IBM computer.
297. Willard Wilson--salesman for genuine leather boots.
298. Karen Winton--nurse in Viet Nam
299. Jim Wolverton--a general critic.
300. Zick Wood--a vegetable agriculturalist.
301. Cal Woodring--piano player in an after hour club.
302. Allen Young--foreign diplomat to Red China.
303. Paul Zofchak--president of the Temperance Union.

THE LOST FIELDS

The fields from the mountains
Green and pulsing with life,
Warmed by the touch of hands
Lie, as in the throes of death,
Barren and cold.

Why are you crying?

Is your sorrow for the trees which once gave of themselves that are now lying withered in the dust.

For the stream that seems to have died: It still flows down from the mountain but to other fields wanting its waters, in a bed cut by new strength.

Or for the land itself giving all of life's nectar so that we may walk in the sun?

Are you crying for the fruit and the fondly remembered harvest-time,
The harvest which brought young men and the glow of romance,
The harvest which took from the land life itself,
The golden fruit nourished by the land, watered by the stream, born of the trees?

Or are you crying for me?

But why do you cry?

Do you not know that the golden fruit and the memory of the harvest are safe?
Locked in the storehouse of my heart,
They are giving their life to mine,
Steadying my hand,
Strengthening my back
For that day when I will again be called to the fields.

CLASS WILLS

We the class of 1955 will the following items to our unlucky friends:

Jackie Allen wills Phil Goldman to Pam Thorn.

Nancy Allen wills Senior Parent right to any Junior who will take it.

Sue Allen wills Lana Goodchild her voice.

Ken Alsi wills Cathy Quill to Darrel Neilson.

Dave Anderson wills his 2nd chain haritone section to Linda McCoy.

Faye Anderson wills Mr. Wilson to those "poor" future Business Law students.

Leroy Anderson wills his great diving ability to Frank Kane.

Mike Bacon wills his 53 chevy to John Larada.

Sandy Bair wills her library fines to Gerry Bithier.

Ed Barnes wills his motorcycle to Dave Duke.

Laura Barnes will her brains to Clyde Albrant.

Sue Barrell wills her beginners canoe manual to Rabbit Abbot.

Ken Baxter wills his 51 Ford to anyone who'll take it.

Karen Beckley wills her unfinished shorthand book.

Bill Berry wills his golf game to Bill Maggoner.

Carol Bickersteth wills some self discipline to the Junior class "God knows they need it."

Jim Bignall wills his fighting ability to Al Neuville.

Dallas Bingley wills his fractured leg to Keith Nolan.

Becky Birdingham wills her bad grades to Juniors.

Richard Black wills his crutches to Jeanie Peterson.

Gloria Billings wills her hair to Dan James.

Pat Bolerjack wills his success with girls to Jim Johnson.

Lucy Borg wills her knitting ability to Kay Snyder.

Terry Bradford wills a grapevine to the Junior Class.

Frances Brasseur wills his shin splints to John Carroll.

Dick Bohms wills Mr. Moore to the Junior class.

Dan Brewer wills to Bill Garrison one U. S. M. tattoo.

Richard Brewer wills to Bob Loiscell one pair of greasy overalls.

Linda Bruner wills to Irene Conway her long, rotten tardiness record. (Is 14 enough, Irene?).

Ron Buchko wills to Marsha Horn one flat bicycle tire.

Brenda Buck wills to Cheryl Gould her job.

Ray Buck wills to Herbie Carroll a brace to hold up his big head

Linda Burns wills to Bob Miller her homemaking ability.

Dianne Bert wills to Marsha Satkowiak her perfect? attendance.

Bob Carlson wills to Cathy Perret a rope with a hangman's noose.

Paul Carroll wills to Greg Blue his great skateboarding ability.

Carol Cavanagh wills to Carol Kramer her neighbor.

Marilyn Caves wills to Barb Gleason Marilyn's Mickey Mantle bat.

John Chase wills to Bill Waggoner thirteen flat tires.

Janice Clark wills to Maria Kertesz a broken broom.

Dan Clase wills to Steve Allen one ball of aluminum foil.

Linda Clinton wills to Kathy Williamson her bookkeeping practice set.

Sharon Cocke wills to Barb Gleason her legs so she can play better basketball.

Linda Cochran wills to Jim Johnson her long blonde hair.

Dennis Conway wills to Terry Taylor an empty bottle of Dr. Pepper.

Pat Coon wills to Bill Coon a banana.

Landa Cope wills to Beth Manderfield her old round glasses.

Gary Craig wills to Debbie Gonser the library.

Roberta Cranston wills to Chrisanne Allen all her acids and precipitates.

Mike Craton wills to Daryl Neilson one dried-up flealess beetle wig.

Leonore Cream wills to Brigid Farmer her composure in time of extreme pressure.

Charles Cross wills to Brian Hastings his ability to skip and get away with it.

Landa Cope wills her great driving ability to Beth Manderfield.

Bob Edwards wills his good teacher relations to Jeff Miller.

David Ellers wills his height to anyone who desires it.

Jan Ellinger wills her trombone ability to Anne Harvey.

Don Eagleson wills Darrell Neilson, Jack Hicklin, and all the other money borrowers some "luck" on finding a new sucker to borrow money from Mike Dandaneau wills his bug collections to the Junior Class.

Mary Ann Douglas wills her "clay pots" to Chris Marts.

Tom DuLude wills his basketball ability to any junior who doesn't need any.

Susan Cushman wills her smile to Marv Allen.

Karen Cruickshank wills her chipped tooth to Kathy Williamson.

Les Draws wills his good driving record to John Harada.

Bob Czuby wills his beer cap opener to Greg Jasper.

Rod Drigget wills his sports car to the Junior Class. (Providing they give him $400.)

Doug Dunlap wills his excellent attendance record in Journalism class to Beth Manderfield.

Terry Deane wills the mud on his shoes to the Junior Class.

Joann Duke wills all her used shorthand tablets to Carol Sheffer.

Gary Debolt wills his swimming ability to Glenn Jennings.

Mike Dunk wills his ability to have tickets "fixed" to John Harada.

Betty Elliot wills to Marty Baker all of the fun of the Senior Year with or without a Bob.

Jack Ellis wills to E. Carley some truth pills.

Royal Fadar wills to Marsha Horn our dried out advanced entomology collection, complete with larva, wholy collection net, and killing jar and an instruction book for beginners.

Gail Fenton wills her Madrigal's director's wand to Tom Tirrell.

Paulette Ford wills a pair of siccors to a certain junior.

Nancy Geiger wills a spider collection to any future Advanced Biology student of the Junior class.

Karen Grammatico wills all her old shoe boxes to Paula Winegarden.

Gary Graves wills his great ability to drink milk to Greg Jasper.

Kathy Grey wills to Linda Woolman all her Kearsley boyfriends

Sue Griggs wills her wornout steering wheel to Jacki Flore.

Len Garwin wills an extra hand to Mike Morrison to help pat himself on the back.

Joy Herman wills her bucket to carry a tune in for choir to Marsha Horn.

Mike Hale wills his lightning speed to Denny Creg.

Myrna Holstine wills a new walk to Shiela Comer.

Dave Ryde wills the marked-up senior textbooks to the poor juniors who will be using them next year. (Good Luck)

Karen Horn wills her personality to Tommy Johnson.

Betty Houser wills to Cathy Pirrett the enjoyment of seeing all 105 y-teens to every meeting.

Jim Heos wills Penny to Keith Mohan.

Jim Jewett wills his speed and stamina in Cross Country to John Carroll.

Jackie Halstead wills to Vicki Henderson the stretcher in the clinic.

Wayne Howe wills his class and social standing to Tommy Johnson.

Francine Jakubik wills her messy locker to Yvonne Peacock.

Lesley Harper wills her gracefulness in the water to all the Juniors in Marlinettes.

Jim Jensen wills to the junior class all the senior lockers.

Anita Jenzog wills her ruler, broken eardrum, and chair from the Press Room to Lynn Akers. Good Luck.

Judy Ismael wills Lana Goodchild her talented voice.

Willie Havener wills her ice cream cone but not the ice cream to John True.

Dick Hayes wills to Bob Kilpatrick all the junk in the bottom of his locker and the hairies he laid for him.

Larry Hendricks wills his fishing ability to Bob Horn.

Bill Hall wills all the expenses involved with graduating to the Junior class.

John Grimes wills to Dale Simpson a long and happy Senior year with Mr. Bearup.

Don Grovesteen wills his great knowledge of women to Dale Simpson.

Kay Harris wills her old sweaty soft-ball shoes to Dave Barber.

Debbie Jackson wills her slightly dirty majorette hat to Claudia Dunlap.

Seth Hunter wills all the weight she lost to Chris Rucker.

Dawn Heiderer wills her Florida tan to one of the many anemic Juniors.

Jerry La Fernay wills to Dale Simpson Mr. Bearup.

Bonnie Kerr wills to Lana Goodchild some throat spray.

Diane Kitchen wills her size 10 basketball tennis shoes to Barb Gleason.

Karl Kontyko wills his size 8 football helmet and size 10 sweatecks to Tom Ruhrup.

Jan La Fave wills to Diane Barrett her dimples to use in her senior year.

Linda Keifgen wills her Peter Pan Wig to Jim Johnson.

Bev Kaiser wills the Kaiser Aluminum Company to Jvly Dawson.

Carolyn Menges wills all her old shoe boxes to Paula Winegarden.

Terry McClelland wills his greensmower to Jim Angle.

Greg McVannel wills his baseball schedule with 3 spike holes and 2 grass stains to Russ Cassidy.

Herb Marne wills 2,689 slightly used poker chips to Sam Shimmel.

Dan Mitchell wills his spotlight to Cris Olson and Joan Nolde.

Maxey, Lieber, McClelland, & Mills will their ability to lead the pledge to the Junior class.

Senior English classes would like to will Mr. Esson to the Junior class.

Ken May wills his old Calorie counter to Linda Wright.

Pam Maggard wills her completely unused hair curlers to Linda Wright.

Pat Moen wills all her used sticks of gum to Mona Bennett.

Dennis Leonhardt wills his 55 Chevy to Rod Laurin.

Bob Lieber wills his political success to Denny Creg.

Susan Maul wills to Darrel Neilson, Danny James and the other baldies two inches of hair apiece.

John McCombe wills his lucky glasses strap to Craig Cox for his use in basketball.

Barb Martin wills her beautitian abilities to Linda Lee.

Jim Meier wills a meat-rat to Greg Teer.

Barrie Moody, being insane under the influence of drugs, leaves his 1959 Ford station wagon to Linda Lee.

Laurie Luciani wills her saddle worn knees to Pat Koucky.

Christine Le Pard wills her choice position at Falks Pharmacy to Don Dewey.

Bonita Mooney wills all her used shorthand pads to Sue Lawson.

Jill Murphy wills her 28" red braid and a 39¢ bottle of Elmer's glue to Dan James, Greg Blue, Darrel Neilson and Jim Johnson to divide evenly between them.

Sandy Nickols wills the popcorn machine to anyone in the junior class who will take it.

Ed Olson wills Greg Blue half of his hair and Mike Morrison his superior ball handling ability.

John Olson wills Bob Bull one slightly used blocking dummy.

Pam Patton wills Jean Peterson a skate board with training wheels and a safety belt.

Vicki Rayner wills Rick Dewar a pamphlet entitled "How to Properly Apply Revlon's Touch and Glow."

Jan Reed wills Barb Gleason a pack of Tarrytons.

Jim Reed wills his baby Ben alarm clock to Mike Morrison.

Sharon Rewbothen wills Rick Dewar her chair in the library.

Bob Peterson wills Tom Tirrell his great acting ability.

Dan Phelps wills his Good Driving Record to Bob Fish.

Craig Phillips wills to any Junior who takes Chemistry next year all the success and good fortune he had in 1st hour class.

Don Pickler wills his Bloody Mary costume which contains, one tight blue sweater and two additional undergarments to Greg Blue or any other needy Marlinette.

Chris Pierce wills Pat Dougherty her Bass clarinet, Reed and Phil Strauble a can of oil.

Marge Pobocik wills Chris Marts her hard working hours in Art Class.

Sandy Pray wills Carol Reppenhagen a typing eraser.

Linda Portz wills her beat up car to Cathy Pirrett to ride around in during play practice.

Linda Rau wills her good time at the Jack and Jill Ranch to any Junior with $40.00.

Jim Neuberger wills his ravishing good looks to Roger White.

Richard Mooney wills his poker chips to Ed Cook.

John Moore wills his voice to Marvin Allen.

Peg Myers wills her h-h record to Jim Willard.

Marvin Mosley wills Linda Wright AAA and that ain't auto insurance.

Barb Martin wills all the dirty looks she received back to Kathy Brannum.

Janet Myrant wills Gail Whitson her old unwashed gym suit.

Mike Sirna wills 6 inches of height to Bob Miller, also 35 pounds to Bob Bull.

Sue Roth wills to Barb Gleason all of her cleaning supplies and extra hours.

Dave Schofield wills his bad grades to the Junior Class.

Al Selesky wills his perpetual "pass from class" to Dave Abbott

Diane Schmitt wills all her beer caps to John Edwards and Jerry Thrall!

Cheryl St. John wills to Marcy Mercy all her old notes, moldy pictures, and rots of ruck!!!

Kathy Sharp wills all her unpaid senior bills to Kathy Williamson.

Greg Smith wills his great pitching arm to Mike Glase.

Roy Slieff wills a swift kick in the pants to Johnny Carroll to make him run faster.

Cathy Shaker wills her ability to be in school every day to Rita LePard.

Judy Rogers wills her emotional stability to Jane Ward.

Van Schielp wills his sanitary socks and 1st base to Joe Catc...e.

Elizabeth Taylor wills her name to anyone who wishes to add a little spice to her life.

Merikay Roth wills to Janice Carsey her sincere desire to survive in the mad rush of developing musicians in the Grand Blanc High School Band.

Charlie Sholburne wills the class of '66 the broom he worked with all fall and winter in the concession stand.

Bob Rozof wills the next Senior Float Chairman 3 boxes of Jungle Crud in hopes that they might have a better float next year.

Bruce Summerer wills to Marty . Baker one bottle of diet pills.

Cris Spaulding wills her "Brigad@on" record to Lana Goodchild and Tom Terril along with "Backslaping" memories and Beethoven's 5th.

Paul Rockafellow wills 10 burnt fingers to Mrs. Hoppert and her play cast who worked so hard to give them to him

Linda Stair wills her great arm to Barb Gleason.

Jeana Rossie wills to the juniors on the synchronized swimming team the Senior Graduation number for next year's show.

Herb Rinnert will Frank Creamer his faulty accident record.

Colette Schulte wills to Linda McCoy the saddle sores that were wills to me last year plus one years supply of barn chores, and I hope that she mends the cot that ripped at the Michigan State Fair last year so she can have a place to rest her saddle-sores, weary body!

Ken Sowden wills his comb to Gary Zofchak.

Joyce Stokes wills her drivers liscense to Ann Schumaker.

Linda Swarbrick wills all her senior books to Mary Lung.

Ruth Slaughter wills to Cassie Winter all of Mr. Esson's little essays and short paragraphs.

Suellen Rupp wills to Janice Carsey her shorthand ability.

Dianne Robinson wills her old dirty Madras Bermudas to Dan McAuliffe; and also her southern accent to the whole Junior Class with greatness.

Miane Stilson wills her voice to Gain Anderson.

Dick Smith wills his high diving ability to the Juniors of the 5th hour gym class.

Rod Teel wills his good grades and attitude to Danny McAuliffe.

Bill Thiel wills his legs to Jeff Miller.

Sue Thimlar wills Bob Miller two baby pictures so he can display them in next years math class; also, wills Craig Cox a pen with a life time ink supply.

Richard Tomkinson wills to Sherry Wells his good looks and good nature.

Jay Turner wills to Andy Antizack his Ag. I notebook.

Verde VanSickle wills his arms to Mike Pritchett for his breaststroke.

Vicki Vorce wills her innocense to Linda Chandnois.

Jan Waggoner wills to brother Bill, her parents as chaperones for all dances, parties, and class activities.

Jeanne Pobocik wills her "excused" absence slips to any Junior who would like to vacation for a few months.

Pat VanLoon wills to Carol Sheffer two pieces of used carbon paper from the Athletic Office and the Co-op Office.

Cassie Ward wills to Linda Chandnois all her 1963 pennies-- 956 to be exact.

Rich Ward wills his pole vault equipment to John Carroll.

Shirley Warren wills her choir robe to Patty Binant.

Dave Wedding wills his Cruel Sea to Doug Mills.

Laura Weirauch wills to Marsha Horn all the theatrical make-up left over from "Brigadoon."

Carol Welch wills her choir robe and voice to Gail Anderson.

Brian Welder wills to Steve Allen all his unpaid debts for swipped ice cream.

Andy Wentz wills to Dan Ross all his used cash register tape.

Pat Wiggins wills to Jeff Miller her constant study habits.

Delores Williams wills to Linda Leach her copy of Connecticut.

Linda Williams wills to Mike Morrison her extreme height.

Willard Wilson wills to Cliff Reilly his cowboy boots.

Karen Winton wills to Greg Jasper her perfect attendance record.

Jim Wolverton wills Linda Chandnois to the Junior Class.

Rick Wood wills his brain to Tommy Johnson's vegetable judging contest, in hopes of a first place.

Cal Woodring wills to Ray Kern one false tooth--never been used.

Allen Young wills to Yvonne Richardson a whole bunch of kisses!

Paul Zofchak wills to Carole Reppenhagen his class ring.

John Washburn wills his unicycle to anyone in the Junior class that can ride it.

Linda Wiltz wills to the Junior Class the rights to the Perry Road Graveyard.

John Moore and Diane Schmitt will 485 bottle caps to John Edwards and Jerry Thrall.

THE JACK-JILL CAMPFIRE SPEAKS TO YOU

Do not think you people sit alone
Among the dead leaves and sombre shadows
Of this wood, for I am here
Within my glowing heart there lies
The remnants of once proud and mighty trees.
Like those that tower at your backs
In silent watchfulness.
Be not deceived, for even as you watch my flames,
The flame of life in you is burning too,
And feels its kinship with me in a hundred ways.
Is it but chance that every eye is on me fixed,
While I withhold the hovering darkness?
It is the fusing of the universal stream of nature.
Reaching forth from you, to seek in me,
The hopes and dreams of days that are to come.
For they will come, you know.
As surely as the cooling ebbere at my edge
Were once the form and wonder of a living tree.
As only shapeless ashes shall remain
Of people such as you and fires such as me.
But be not sad or frightened at your thoughts,
For out of the long, long, past, I know a wisdom
That has grown from the ages when man could scarcely speak.
And so I say to you tonight
Be not afraid of the long, gray sinister shadows of your past,
That would o'er cast the tiny flame within your heart
With specters of remorse and guilt
Of foolish acts and shattered dreams.
But as I send my light to drive the shadows of this woods away,
So can you feed YOUR flame that it will lift in joyous spurts
Your spirit to a newfound height.
But feed it not with pincy knot or tough-grained oak
That makes the yellow tongues of light arise in me.
Rather with the kindling of a fierce resolve to try again
And scale the mountaintop where waits your dreams for you to realize.
For they are there, you know, and others too,
Far greater than you dare to hope, awaiting for your eager claim.
My cousin flame in you needs more than kindling
To produce a heat that drives beyond.
Use slabs of patience, trunks of courage,
And all the branches of kindness that each day lie at your feet,
Waiting to be used.
But the last and the most secret fuel of all,
(I tell this to your heart flame, it will know)
Is finer-grained and more combustive than the rest . . . .
It's God, the Oneness of us all.
The glorius knowing that the world is good,
And that the spirits in it, you and I,
Can share as one, a moment such as this.

I am dying now my comrades
And I see my cousin's glow
In the hearts of you around me.
I shall die so they will grow.
Go and leave me now my kinfolks
While my light shall help your way.
I shall dream of you and love you when you're gone.
And only a heap of gray ashes,
windswept and rain-sodden,
Will show that the Voice of the,
Campfire spoke tonight.