Football Banquet Honors Thomas

The retirement of Mr. Thomas as coach of the varsity football team brought an unusual program to the annual football banquet.

John Olson was presented with the annual football award for the most valuable player. He was selected on the basis of scholarship and playing ability.

Among special guest speakers at the banquet were Guy Houston, Mr. Thomas' high school coach from Northern, Mr. Kerenski and Mr. Pratt, both former coaches with Mr. Thomas in his first years at G.P., and Mr. Pachelor. Mr. Snyder and Mr. Williams, assistant coaches to Mr. Thomas, also spoke.

All the captains (or representatives) of varsity teams since Mr. Thomas has been here were present.

The team presented Mr. Thomas with a plaque and gift certificates to Mr. Snyder and Mr. Williams. The cheerleaders gave Mr. Thomas a tie clasp and a picture of his son, and his assistant coaches gave him a monogrammed blanket.
