

The 82nd Airborne, 320th Battalion, Battery A - WWII

Photos from Maurice Williams, Epsen Christensen, Andrew Jack Ball, and Dr. Hubert C. Stewart

Probably taken at Camp Claiborne before they shipped overseas.

Maurice Williams
Guard Duty

Where is the other one taken? Italy?

North Africa

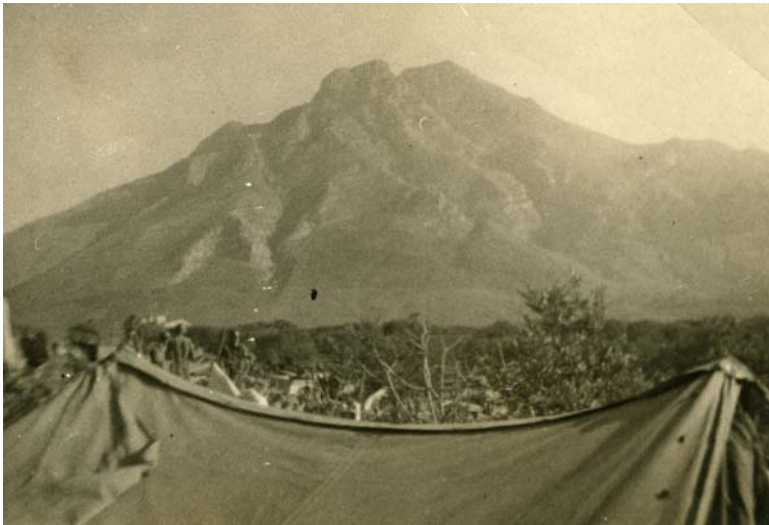

1943 North Africa. Patterson & Curtis

1943 Tunisia.

Sicily

January 44 Termini Imerese

Postcard. The arrow is where they were camped near the water's edge. Maurice said the swimming was nice but he did not get a chance to fish (fishing was his life long love and prominent in letters home)

Italy

Pompeii. Maurice Williams

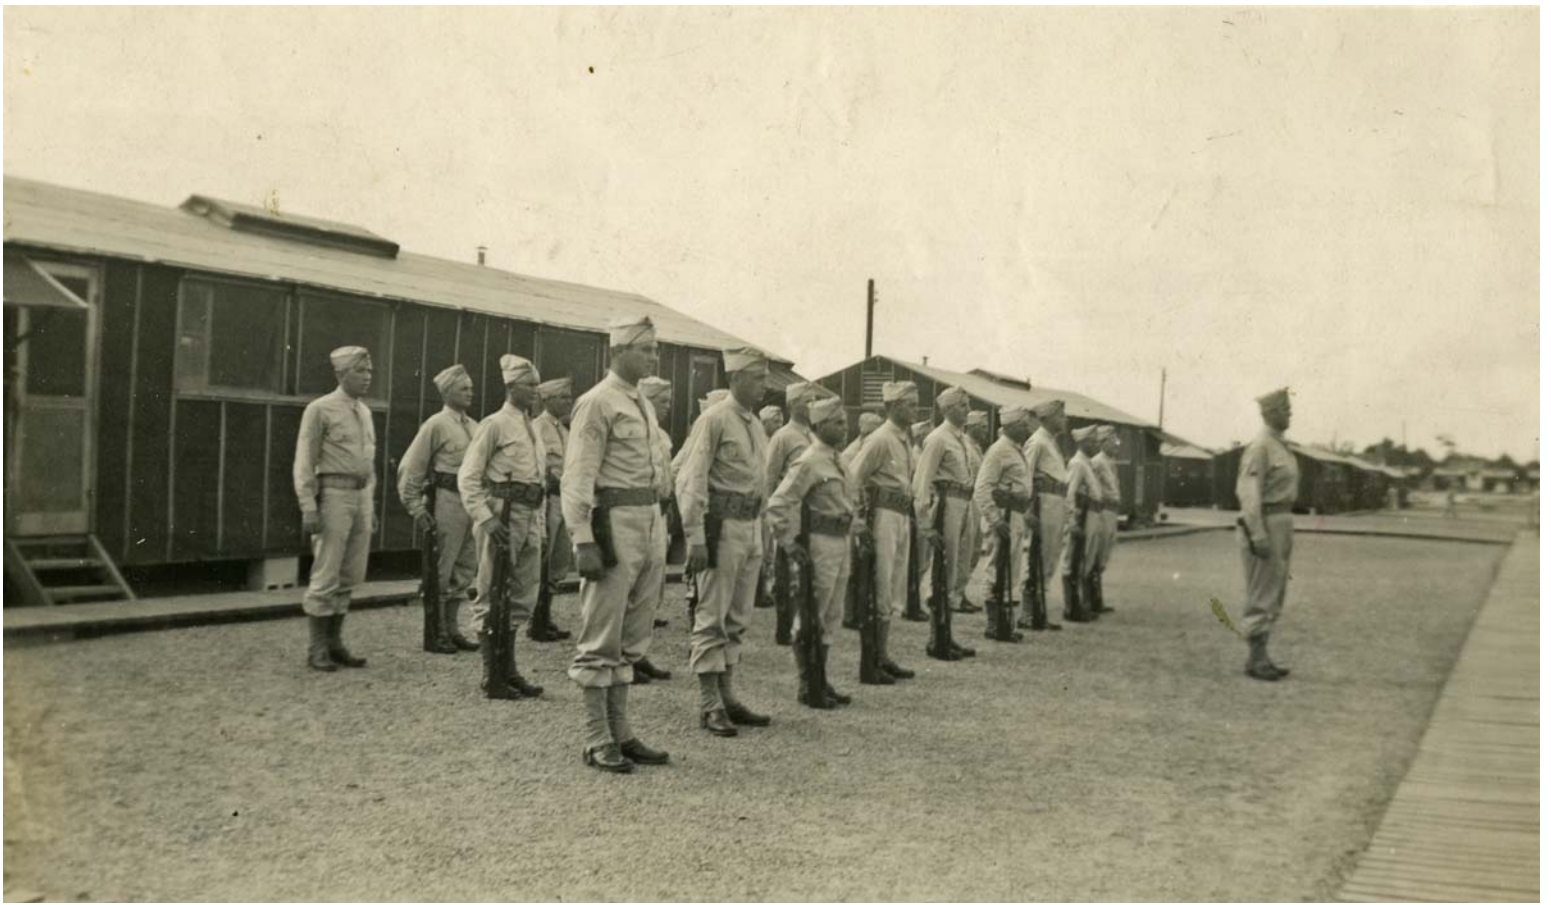

Brothers Maurice and Mack Williams in Naples. Mack was in the 1st Armored division and this is the only time the two were stationed near each other. Mack saw active duty in Africa and then stayed in Italy through the end of the war.

Northern Ireland

1944 Northern Ireland

1944 Northern Ireland

Normandy

Normandy

Holland

September
1944

Grosbeck
Holland

Belgium

Enroute to Germany

Germany

Near Cologne

Feb 1945 Vossneck Germany

Feb 1945 Vossneck Germany

Feb 1945 Eupon Germany

Feb 1945 Eupon Germany

France

June 1945 Epinal France

Sigfred Line

June 1945 Epinal France. Epsen Christensen

Capt. Stewart helping a fellow soldier with a smoke.

Capt. Hubert C. Stewart MD was battalion surgeon for the 320th from activation of the unit to Berlin at war's end, when he was sent to head up a hospital unit.

September 1945. Some men have already started to return to the US.