

Seniors "Tea House" Has Fine Reception

"Teahouse of The August Moon" played to very good houses at the Grand Blanc High school gym, as presented by the senior class last Thursday and Friday evenings. The amusing play was exceptionally well-directed, well-staged and acted.

Adapted from a novel by Vern Sneider, the play portrays the experiences of Col. Wainwright Purdy III, on the Island of Okinawa after the war with the many zany happenings which develop when he introduces "The American Way of Life" to the natives of Okinawa. The situation is more or less complicated by the methods of Sakini, interpreter.

The cast of characters was as follows: Sakini, Cal Woodring; Sergeant Gregovich, Paul Rockafellow; Col. Wainwright Purdy III, Mike Bacon; Capt. Fisby, Terry Bradford; Old Woman, Linda Koepfgen; Old Woman's Daughter, Cassie Ward; Daughter's Children, Linda Williams, Cathy Quill, Vicki Vorce; Lady Astor, a goat; Governor Williams, ditto; Ancient Man, Mike Serna; Mr. Hokaida, Don Pickler; Mr. Omura, Andy Wentz; Mr. Sumata, Terry Maxey; Mr. Sumata's Father, Rich Ward; Mr. Sieko, John Moore; Miss Higa Jiga, Landa Cope; Mr. Keora, Tom DuLude; Mr. Oshira, Bob Rozof; Villagers, John McCombs, Wayne Howe, Mike Dandaneau; Ladies League for Democratic Action, Jan Ellinger, Sue Grambush, Linda Sowle, Donna Crunkleton, Jeana Rossie; Lotus Blossom, Linda Wiltz; Capt. McLean, Karl Kontyko.
